

MUSIC AND BRITISH VALUES AT ST OSWALD'S

Democracy	The Rule of Law	Individual Liberty	Mutual Respect	Tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs
Lessons provide opportunities for pupils to express themselves freely, forming opinions about music they will listen to, in composition and performing tasks. Within lessons, students have the opportunity to express their opinions and these are respected by others.	Teachers will focus on rewards to reinforce high expectations of behaviour and approach to study. Pupils are taught how to be an appreciative and supportive audience who listen attentively whilst others perform. We will think about responsibilities of adults and children through the study of music, looking at the historical and social context.	Within our lessons students are taught about self-discipline and that to be successful you must work hard, show resilience and have a growth mind-set that anything can be achieved if you put your mind to it. Lessons provide opportunities for pupils to express themselves freely in composition and performing tasks.	Individuals are encouraged to make sensible and informed choices in lessons and to take ownership and leadership for this. This is demonstrated through ensuring the working environment is safe. Pupils are encouraged to respect everyone's abilities and performances during lessons and give feedback sensitively. Children develop respect and greater understanding of differences.	In music, our pupils listen to and learn about the music of other faiths and cultures and how music is used in different cultures and faiths. They are able to compare similarities and differences between music in a variety of times and cultures and to reflect on and celebrate differences between themselves and others. Children are taught to understand and respect other cultures and beliefs.
